9a Balmer Avenue, Lismore

$550,000 - $580,000

Looking for something that's not your average cookie-cutter? This 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home is bursting with individuality and charm-perfect for those who appreciate the unexpected.

From the moment you walk in, you'll notice this isn't your average home. Think split levels, interesting angles, bold features, and creative flair in every corner. It's the kind of place that sparks conversation and makes you feel instantly at home.

The living areas are open and inviting and each bedroom has its own vibe, with natural light, personality, and space to relax or create. The bathrooms are thoughtfully designed with a splash of character that ties in beautifully with the rest of the home.

A massive extra wide veranda is the perfect option to barbecue, relax and or curl up on the day bed plus there is storage or a studio room downstairs as well.

Outside, you'll find a quirky garden space with pockets to play, entertain, or unwind. It's got that "something special" that's hard to define but easy to fall in love with.

If you're after a home that's different, delightful, and full of soul-this one's for you.
