

121 Stoney Creek Road, Bexley

Sold for $1,400,000 (Aug 12, 2025)

Impeccably presented and flexible for family living, this lovely double brick bungalow blends signature character details with refreshing modern functionality.

Stepping inside, you’re met by a wide hall entry embellished by picture rails, polished traditional floorboards and beautiful high ceilings. As the level floorplan flows through, it passes by three generous bedrooms, a versatile fourth bed or formal lounge and a stylishly renovated bathroom.

The layout culminates in an open social centre where living and dining zones integrate with a modern gas kitchen and butlers’ pantry. The family lifestyle appeal continues outside with an easy to maintain courtyard perfect for barbecues or laidback gatherings.

Located in a central Bexley position, you’re moments from village attractions, Bexley Oval, golf course, Bardwell Valley Parklands and Bexley North Station.

- Charming heritage tiles line the front porch upon entry
- Open social centre provides space to relax and gather
- Entertain or dine alfresco on the large paved courtyard
