Charming Cooroy Classic on a Spacious 1,533m² Block

This delightful post-war home offers the perfect blend of character and potential in a highly sought-after Cooroy location. Set on a generous 1,533m² allotment, the property features three bedrooms, one bathroom, and a light-filled living space that embraces its original charm.

Surrounded by established gardens, there's ample room for a veggie patch, play space for the kids, or simply to enjoy the open space. The elevated position captures lovely breezes, and you'll love the convenience of being just moments from Cooroy's vibrant township, schools, shops, and public transport.

Whether you're looking to move straight in, renovate, or simply enjoy the space and convenience, this home offers a rare opportunity in the heart of the Noosa Hinterland.
