Step inside this much-loved Queenslander and feel immediately at home. Brimming with character and charm, this residence is more than just four walls-it's a place where family stories unfold, friendships blossom, and the romance of yesteryear blends beautifully with modern comfort.

From the moment you arrive, you're welcomed by a delightful entry deck, perfect for enjoying your morning coffee as the sunshine gently filters through. Stained glass windows catch the light in rich colours, while polished hardwood timber floors bring warmth and earthiness underfoot. Period windows and French doors add to the romantic touches that make this home so special.

Inside, the open-plan living spaces invite connection and comfort, seamlessly flowing out to the expansive covered entertaining deck. Whether it's Sunday lunches, celebrations with friends, or simply unwinding with a book, this is the true heart of the home.

Under the house, there's space ready for expansion if your dreams outgrow the current footprint. Single car accommodation is already in place, with plenty of additional space for storage or creative projects.

But the real gem lies in the council-approved granny flat-a fully self-contained retreat with a
