3/5 Spencer Street, Rose Bay

Sold

Atlas, Rose Bay. Proudly developed by Fortis, and built by Lords Group.

A private enclave of two, three and four bedroom residences nestled within the tranquil delights of harbourside Rose Bay-blending lavish worlds of contemporary refinement with the nostalgia and romance of European Classicism. Roam the world within the privacy of your own home. Envisaged by award-winning architects, MHNDU, this expansive new garden residence evokes luxurious, travel-inspired experiences of adventures past and those still to come nestled within the tranquil delights of harbourside Rose Bay, less than seven kilometres from the Sydney CBD.

Interiors curated by acclaimed Alexander & Co, relax inside amongst the ambience of natural stone, engineered oak floors and walnut-tone joinery with designer Wolf and Subzero appliances and flourishes of feature metals. Gaze outward as white bougainvillea spill over textured walls, cradling sweeping lawns and gardens peppered with towering palms and bold succulents.

Full height windows and sliding doors bathe living areas and bedrooms in natural light, while offering enchanting private outlooks. Refined open-plan living flows out to an oversized entertainer's terrace with pool and landscaping by Dangar Barin Smith and discrete garden access from three spacious bedrooms.
