4/57-61 Market Street, Randwick

Auction

Nestled in a quiet North Randwick enclave lined with trees is this marvellous apartment, curated for coastal living with a heightened sense of style. Standards are high throughout a full-brick design with original curved arches, enhanced with a brilliant white palette, wide-panelled engineered floors, plus a selection of stylish appliances and fixtures. Finishes in the laundry and bathroom are also impressive, with a bathtub at hand for a blissful soak from time to time. This north-facing residence is an accomplished entertainer, offering a servery window from the kitchen to the dining area, plus a lovely balcony surrounded by calming greenery. The established building offers a lift, undercover parking and multiple garden retreats, and is set right across from a long-standing seniors' village which imbues this end of the street with an aura of serenity. Buses, a selection of schools, Frenchmans Road Village and Centennial Park are all within easy walking distance.

Property Features:
