94 Birdwood Avenue, Umina Beach

$1,300,000 - $1,350,000

Beautifully renovated and immaculately presented, this three-bedroom home delivers effortless coastal living with the added bonus of a versatile rear studio – a combination that's hard to find and easy to love.

The main residence has been fully renovated throughout and presents in excellent condition, offering light-filled interiors, modern finishes and a practical layout suited to families, downsizers or buyers seeking a quality home with nothing left to do. It's the kind of property where you unpack once and immediately feel at home.

Positioned at the rear of the block, the separate studio adds genuine flexibility and value. Ideal as a home office, guest space, teenage retreat or creative studio, it's a standout feature that adapts to your lifestyle both now and into the future.

Set in a quiet, well-established street, this home enjoys a convenient Umina Beach location close to local shops, schools, transport and some of the Central Coast's best beaches – offering the perfect balance of everyday ease and relaxed coastal living.
