Discover the perfect fusion of timeless style and modern convenience with this exceptional residence, set on a generous 1,218m² corner allotment in the beautiful township of Gisborne. Surrounded by nature and nestled among premium amenities, this one-of-a-kind property offers privacy, space, and a lifestyle designed to inspire.

From the moment you arrive, the striking stonework, established gardens, and wide verandas set the tone for a home full of warmth and character. Inside, cathedral ceilings, feature niches, and a thoughtful split-level design create a sense of grandeur and openness rarely found.

Boasting four spacious bedrooms (main with ensuite) plus a separate study, this home is perfect for families, remote professionals, or anyone seeking space to grow. The expansive country kitchen is a chef’s dream, flowing seamlessly into the meals area and cozy lounge—complete with a stunning open fireplace for those perfect winter evenings.

Comfort isn’t just seasonal here. Enjoy natural gas, hydronic heating, electric reverse cycle heating & cooling throughout, ensuring you’re snug through winter and cool in summer. It’s a home that not only looks good but feels just right all year round.
