29 Goode Street, Gisborne

$1,115,000 - $1,220,000

Framed by a classic white picket fence, this fully renovated weatherboard home captures timeless character while offering modern efficiency. Step inside to soaring 9ft ceilings, a cosy gas log fire in the lounge, and a light-filled open-plan living zone. The spacious kitchen is a true showpiece with a central island, 40mm stone benchtops, and exceptional storage.

The master suite is a private retreat with walk-in robe and ensuite, while three additional bedrooms – plus a flexible study or fifth bedroom – cater to every lifestyle. Both bathrooms are finished with floor-to-ceiling tiles, adding style and sophistication. A rear rumpus room provides space for family living, while double-glazed windows, zoned heating and cooling system, rooftop solar, and thoughtful energy-efficient features ensure year-round comfort and lower running costs.

Outdoors, an elevated deck overlooks the generous 762m<sup>2</sup> allotment – perfect for entertaining while the kids enjoy the backyard. Complete with carport, this home is positioned within walking distance to schools, shops, parkland, and everything Gisborne has to offer.

Opportunities with this much charm, practicality, and efficiency are rare – this is one not to miss.
