

Contemporary Family Living in the Heart of Gisborne

 5  2  3

24 Frith Road, Gisborne

Sold for $1,200,000 (May 07, 2025)

This fully renovated family home combines modern design with a fantastic location, offering parkland views right at your doorstep. From the enhanced façade, including new garage doors, a charming arbor, and landscaped garden beds, to the luxurious interior, every detail has been meticulously updated.

The home features a brand-new kitchen, bathrooms, laundry, home office, and outdoor entertaining area, all with high-end finishes. The spacious master bedroom is complemented by a light-filled ensuite with a walk-in shower, freestanding bathtub, and designer tapware, plus a large walk-through robe. Four additional bedrooms offer built-in robes, block-out blinds, and sheer curtains. The dedicated home office includes built-in storage and dual workstations.

The front formal lounge overlooks the Gisborne Botanical Garden, while the central living area, with its vaulted ceiling, integrates a family room with a gas log fire and a stylish kitchen with Caesarstone benchtops, a walk-in pantry, and new appliances. The meals area opens to an updated outdoor space featuring eco-friendly decking, a built-in BBQ, and a garden shed.

With a north-facing backyard, tiered landscaping, and water tanks for irrigation, this home is just a short walk from the Adventure Playground, Jackson Creek walking trails, and Gisborne’s town centre. It’s the perfect choice for those seeking both convenience and modern comforts.
