Charming Circa 1880's Miners Cottage in the Heart of Old Gisborne

Steeped in history and brimming with character, this circa 1880s-1890s Miners Cottage is a rare opportunity to secure a piece of Gisborne's heritage. Positioned in the highly sought-after Old Gisborne township, just 100 metres from the town centre, this remarkable property sits on an expansive 1,060m² (approx.) allotment, offering a blend of timeless charm and exciting future potential. Whether you're looking for a unique family home or exploring development possibilities (STCA), this residence presents an exceptional opportunity.

Behind its charming façade, the home reveals a warm and inviting interior, rich in period detail. The formal dining room is a true centre-piece, while a long north-facing sunroom captures natural light and provides the perfect space to relax and unwind. The pine-lined kitchen, framed by soaring cathedral ceilings, brings a rustic elegance to the home, while the three living areas offer flexibility for modern family living.

Accommodation is generous, with three well-proportioned bedrooms, plus study/4th bedroom including a master retreat that boasts double glass doors opening onto a breathtaking private garden-a secluded oasis of lush greenery and tranquillity. The paved courtyard, framed by rock walls and secret garden nooks, creates a picturesque setting for outdoor entertaining or quiet reflection.
