Impressing with a vibrant northerly aspect and a versatile layout, this superb home is on the market for the first time in decades. It has clear appeal for growing families, with a four-bedroom layout that provides multiple living areas, along with the ability to offer self-contained accommodation to the in-laws or an independent teenager. Matched with a sun-drenched outdoor area, this home portrays genuine comfort and reassurance with a full-brick build and a family orientated location. It is close to Penshurst Street shops, within 500m of Willoughby Public School and within minutes' drive of Chatswood's shops, hospitality and transport networks.

- Full-brick construction, original hardwood floors & skirtings
- Flexible floorplan impresses with three separate living areas
- Larger main living room connects with a sunroom / study area
- Four well-scaled bedrooms, one opens to a two-way bathroom
- Both bathrooms are updated with a stylish contemporary finish
- Two kitchens and two laundries, ready for dual accommodation
