Designed to capture sweeping northerly views across Batten Reserve, this contemporary residence enjoys an elevated position in one of Lane Cove's most picturesque settings. Extended to accommodate multi-generational living, a designer black fusion granite kitchen forms the central hub of a home thoughtfully crafted with entertaining at its heart. A guest apartment on the lower level provides in-law or teen accommodation, while the main floor features four well-appointed bedrooms, including a luxury master suite with access to a central district-view terrace. Wrapped by landscaped level gardens and positioned on the doorstep to Tantallon Oval, its premier location is footsteps to city buses and walking distance to Lane Cove Village.

- Glass-encased living space and kitchen with bi-folds extending to a centrepiece terrace
- Near-new designer kitchen anchored by a stunning custom black fusion granite island
- 900mm gas cooker, polyurethane soft-close cabinetry, Franke tapware and sink
- Four main-level bedrooms, each with robes and ceiling fans
- North-facing master bedroom with a spa ensuite, district views and private outdoor access
