Mid-Century charmer in a peaceful reserve setting

Encircled by Stringybark Creek Reserve and the Harry Howard Bush Walk, this enchanting home offers families a unique haven in the heart of Lane Cove. On the market for the first time in over 35 years, timeless mid-century design is complemented by a serene natural setting. Enhanced with eco-conscious principles to capture all-day sunlight, the floor plan includes three upper-level bedrooms as well as a versatile home office/studio with separate external access. Stylishly updated and defined by its seamless outdoor connection, every window frames a view worth waking up to. Stroll through lush walking trails, wake to the sound of birdsong and relish in the convenience of Lane Cove's vibrant Village precinct, eclectic dining options and express city buses – all just a short walk away.

- Vaulted entry foyer leading to the centrepiece living/dining space
- Gourmet open plan kitchen with a servary to the elegant dining area
- Granite benchtops, deep pantry and premium European appliances
- Skylit high ceilings, peaceful bush views and a custom bar and wine cellar
