

Enduring quality and over-sized sunlit space just a stroll to village life

3

2

1

7/117-119 Hampden Road, Artarmon

Auction - Contact Agent

Be spoilt for space in this light and large, full-brick apartment, quietly elevated in a quality-built block with just one common wall. Enjoy the natural advantage of a north-facing corner position, with a generous wraparound balcony that captures the sunshine. The layout is ideal for families, offering rare breathing room indoors and out, with extra-large bedrooms including a privately set master with an ensuite and leafy North Shore views. With enduring quality of the c.1990s construction and a peaceful, secure feel, this home delivers comfort and scale in equal measure.

Take a short stroll to Artarmon village, cafés, rail and more and enjoy the convenience of Chatswood and St Leonards just one stop away.

- Boutique block of nine apartments, full brick and concrete slab
- Elevated c.1990s security building with a sunny north corner position
- Only one common wall (kitchen/dining), fresh paint and new lighting
- Exceptionally spacious open living and dining areas flowing to balcony
- Streaming with natural light from living room, reverse air conditioning

Property ID: L35314674

Property Type: Apartment

Garages: 1

Land Area: 138.0 sqm

Daniel Cakmak

0401 566 664

danielc@lns.rh.com.au

- Well-designed kitchen: cooktop, oven, dishwasher, appliance space
- Three impressively large bedrooms for families, built-in robes
- Master bedroom includes an ensuite and enjoys treetop views
- Timeless black and white scheme to bathrooms, bath and showers
- Spacious internal laundry room, dryer, generous linen press/storage
- Lock up garage, internal access, visitor parking
- 500m stroll to rail, village shops, eateries, near Chatswood, St Leonards
- In Artarmon Public School and Chatswood High School catchments
- Stroll to the Great Northern Hotel, close to the M1 and M2