1

132 Wilson Street, Newtown

Sold Prior To Auction for $1,487,500 (Jul 07, 2026)

Positioned in a highly sought-after North Newtown pocket just footsteps to Hollis Park and “One Another” café, this recently refreshed terrace offers an inviting blend of character, space and everyday convenience in one of the area’s most walkable locations. Soaring ornate ceilings set the tone on entry, enhancing a spacious free-flowing layout defined by separate living and dining zones. Brand-new polished floorboards add warmth and refinement, while thoughtful proportions create an easy sense of comfort throughout. The lounge is anchored by a combustion fireplace providing a cosy focal point for relaxed evenings. An adjoining dining space flows to a well-equipped gas kitchen, while interiors extend to a private sun washed courtyard setting. Promising outstanding lifestyle appeal, this is one of those neighbourhoods where everything feels effortlessly close. Macdonaldtown Station is just 200 metres away for a quick city commute, while King Street sits approximately 300 metres from the door, offering an easy stroll to cafés, pubs and boutique shopping. The home is also within the catchment for Darlington Public School, while Carriageworks and Sydney University are within easy reach.

- Spacious free-flowing layout with separate living and dining zones
- Sleek kitchen with s/steel gas cooktop, rangehood and dishwasher
- NE facing sun-soaked courtyard ideal for relaxing and entertaining
