The Neighbourhood;

Primarily residential, although tightly packed in Chippendale residents enjoy the close proximity to Broadway shopping, Sydney Uni and, of course, the CBD. And there's easy access to vast parklands if the need for wide open space arises.

Rows of worker's cottages line the streets of Chippendale as well as terraced housing that was originally built for workers in the many factories in the area. The suburb has gone through many incarnations and now boasts some of the finest contemporary warehouse conversions in Sydney.

Chippendale offers accessibility and within walking distance to the University of Technology, Sydney, Sydney University and the University of Notre Dame Australia and close proximity to Darlington Primary School, Cleveland Street High and Glebe Primary School.

Chippendale is located 2km from the CBD with frequent buses along City Road that connect to the city. Central Station is an easy 10-minute walk away.
