

Perfection From Every Angle

105 Hannan Street, Williamstown

$2,500,000 - $2,650,000

Brilliantly designed by Tina Lindner, the comprehensive modern renovation of this classic block front Victorian has been executed with precision, skill, impeccable taste and interesting innovation whilst skilfully maintaining a glorious welcoming charm.

Eye catching style is not compromised to provide an eminently practical family home that will satisfy the most discerning buyer. And now that the masterpiece is complete you just move in without the planning, design, hold ups or cost blow outs associated with building your own.

A host of modern family needs have been thoughtfully catered for within the design of this luxurious, four bedroom plus study home in coveted Hannan street with rear access car accommodation.

Huge windows all around the open plan living area seamlessly connect the verdant backyard to the indoor space.

A truly amazing kitchen puts the icing on the cake with gorgeous natural stone benches, induction cooking, integrated appliances and massive hidden pantry and workstation cupboards.

Aside from the breathtaking style, other highlights, to name a few, include absolutely
